MILWAUKEE PUBLIC LIBRARY SYSTEM
Rules for the Use of Meeting Rooms

Library meeting rooms are intended to be used for public gatherings which supplement or are related to the public library's basic program: to strengthen effective citizenship through the use of books and other library materials.

Any group or individual located or residing in Milwaukee may apply for the use of the meeting rooms, subject to prior commitment and the following rules prescribed by the Library's Board of Trustees:

1. Application for room use must be made in triplicate on this form, PL-111. The application must be signed by a responsible member of the group and provide full details of the purpose for which the room is to be used. One copy will be returned to the applicant for his own files. Applications are to be sent to the City Librarian, Milwaukee Public Library.
2. The purpose of the meeting must be civic, educational, or of other general public interest.
3. The meeting must be open to the public without the payment of any admission fee nor may a collection be taken. The only exceptions are in the case of paid registration necessary to cover expenses for institutes, courses, or discussion groups with which the library is cooperating. Even in such cases anyone must be admitted free of charge who so demands.
4. Meeting rooms in neighborhood libraries will have preference given to local or neighborhood groups within the vicinity of a neighborhood library.
5. Meetings may be held at any time within the hours of usual opening and until 9:30 p.m. There is no charge for use of meeting rooms or regular equipment.
6. Groups must agree to conform to the meeting room capacity limitations. The library requires an attendance report.
7. Arrangements requiring custodial assistance or requests for use of special equipment must be made at the time this application is filed on forms provided for this purpose.
8. Copies of announcements of programs held in the Milwaukee Public Library meeting rooms should be sent to the Coordinator of Services to Adults.
9. The Library Board of Trustees reserves the right to adjust and to rearrange meeting room schedules and assignments as exigencies demand.
